

Insectapalooza 2010 Scavenger Hunt

You can find the answers to all these questions in different displays around Insectapalooza

- (1) Name a pollinator other than a honey bee. What percentage of human food plants are pollinated by bees?

- (2) What do butterflies eat? How do butterfly adults help plants?

- (3) Would you rather be in a sleeping bag with a millipede or a centipede?!

- (4) How do tarantulas and Australian stick insects defend themselves from predators?

- (5) How do you distinguish between a deadly and a harmless scorpion?

- (6) Where are the ears on insects like praying mantids? What do katydids use to make sounds?

- (7) What is a 'natural enemy'? Why are they SO important?

- (8) What is New York's state insect and where is it found?

- (9) Why are insect collections important to understanding invasive insects and diversity?

- (10) How do female mosquitoes find their next blood meal?

- (11) In what arthropods do the youngsters look like the adults?